

In The District Court of Johnson County Kansas

Justin Todd Rey
VS. Defendant

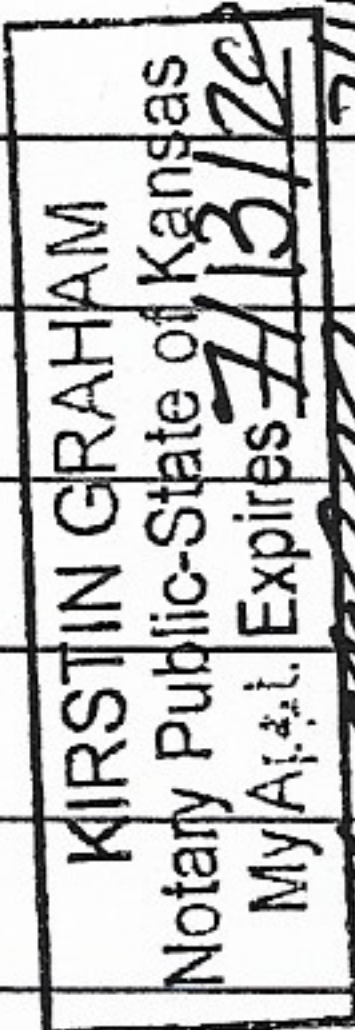

Motion To Dismiss

Case No.
17CR02733
Div. 13

The State of Kansas
Plaintiff

COMES NOW by and through himself, Mr. Justin Todd Rey Moves this Court to dismiss the following Charges against him based on the fact the evidence is insufficient and is not substantiated with any facts to support the claims against him. Mr. Rey is being held Unconstitutionally in involuntary servitude which is a violation of his 8th/14th Amendment Rights. The Law is designed to afford Mr. Rey his rights to due process and the right to be Considered innocent until Proven guilty. In this particular case this court is holding him with no evidence to support the charges brought against him and assuming he's guilty. Mr. Rey is respectfully requesting a timely hearing to Present arguments on the record to Support this Motion to dismiss and to elaborate on the unconstitutionallity of his current incarceration.
